

Cephalexin 50 mg

Composition:

Each tablet contains:
50 mg cephalexin (as monohydrate).

Properties:

Cephalexin is a broad-spectrum cephalosporin having a bactericidal action.

Indications:

The treatment of respiratory infections, especially bronchopneumonia, tonsillitis and infections of the upper respiratory tract caused by Staphylococcus spp, Streptococcus spp, Bordetella spp, Pasteurella spp, E. coli and Klebsiella spp. , urinary tract infections caused by Proteus spp., E. coli and Staphylococcus spp. and skin infections caused by Staphylococcus spp. and Streptococcus spp.

Dosage and administration:

For oral administration.

Dogs and cats: 10 - 15 mg cephalexin/kg body weight twice daily and for at least 5 days.

Advised withdrawal times:

Not applicable.

Contra-Indications:

Known hypersensitivity to cephalosporins.

Side-effects:

Gastro-intestinal disturbances.

Warnings:

The dosage should be lowered and/or adjusted in cases of chronic kidney failure.

Do not administer to dogs or cats weighing less than 3 kg.

Storage:

At room temperature.

Presentation:

Bottles of 500.