

Metoclopramide HCl 10 mg

Composition:

Each tablet contains
10 mg metoclopramide hydrochloride (as monohydrate)

Properties:

Metoclopramide exerts a stimulating effect on gastro-intestinal motility and has an anti-emetic action.

Indications:

The drug is indicated in cases of frequent vomiting and in cases of tympany, chronic gastritis, duodeno-gastral reflux and diarrhoea associated with atony of the gastro-intestinal tract.

Dosage and administration:

The are to be given orally. The usual dose in dogs is 0.25 mg/kg body weight four times daily.

Advised withdrawal times:

Not applicable.

Contra-Indications:

Intestinal obstruction and intestinal perforation.

Side-effects:

Extra-pyramidal signs, dizziness, diarrhoea.

Warnings:

Do not use in combination with atropine-like substances and phenothiazines.
Do not administer to dogs of less than 10 kg body weight.

Storage:

At room temperature.

Presentation:

Bottles of 500.