

Erythrosan 20%

Composition:

Each gram of contain:
200 mg Erythromycin thiocyanate

Action and Indications:

Bacteriostatic antibiotic with similar spectrum as benzylpenicillin. The drug of choice in case of infections with Mycoplasma pneumoniae, M. gallinarum, Haemophilus influenzae and Doyle dysentery. Indicated against infectious coryza, infectious sinusitis, fowl cholera. Erysipelas in turkeys. Erythromycin is quickly absorbed into the respiratory system and is therefore indicated against respiratory diseases (CRD, Mycoplasma and Pasteurella infections).

Administration/dosage:

Curative:

Mix 100 g in 1 l of lukewarm water; bring this mixture in 75-150 l of drinking water. Treat for 3-5 days.

Preventative:

Apply half dosage as prescribed for curative treatment.

Advised withdrawal times:

Eggs : 7 days.

Meat : 7 days.

Conservation:

Dry, dark and cool.

Presentation:

100 g- 200 g- 500 g- 1000 g.