

Triamcinolone acetonide 0.6%

Composition:

Each ml suspension contains:
6 mg triamcinolone acetonide.

Action:

Triamcinolone acetonide is a highly potent synthetic glucocorticoid with marked anti-inflammatory, anti-allergic and anti-pruritic effects.

Indications:

For the treatment of inflammation and related disorders in dogs, cats and horses, also indicated for management and treatment of acute arthritis, allergic and dermatologic disorders.

Administration/dosages:

By intramuscular, subcutaneous or intra-articular injection.

Dogs, cats : 0.1- 0.2 mg per kg body weight (im);

Horses : 12-20 mg per animal;

In case of intra-articular Administration:

dogs, cats : 1-3 mg

horses : 6-18 mg per animal

Contra-Indications:

Diabetes mellitus, osteoporosis, existing local or systemic viral infections, pregnancy.

Side-effects:

As with any corticosteroid, polydipsia or polyuria and other adverse reactions may occur.

Conservation:

At room temperature (15-25°C), protected from light.

Presentation:

Per 12 vials of 50 ml.